

Please take your time to read the Rider Entry Agreement

The following are the terms and conditions that you accept by signing up to The Mongol Derby 2022.

The Mongol Derby is genuinely dangerous, so in today's legal climate we need an agreement that means you take responsibility for yourself and the risks that you will face when you participate in this adventure.

The agreement also covers things like media rights which we try to use to wangle a bit of extra cash to make the events even better. They are only intended to secure the commercial side of things so you still take on your own projects for entertainment or for publicising your own team in newspapers and things. In fact, we love seeing the Mongol Derby on the telly so if you have a commercial project in mind drop us a line and we will try to work with you to make it happen.

So sit back, make a cup of tea and read the following carefully. Be sure exactly what it is you're about to sign up to, and if you are happy, then tick to confirm you agree to the following terms and conditions, and understand the agreement you are entering into upon formally signing up, and then you can get cracking with the actual adventure!

If you have any questions concerning any element of this agreement, then please get in touch with Adventurists HQ by telephoning +44 (0) 117 422 3404 or e-mailing us at hq@equestrianists.com.

11.2 If any event of Force Majeure delays or prevents the performance of the obligations of either party for a continuous period of fourteen (14) days, the party not so affected shall then be entitled to give notice to the Affected Party to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect without penalty. Such a termination notice shall be irrevocable except with the consent of both parties.

12. Acknowledgement of risk

12.1 The Rider recognises and acknowledges that participating in the Event is a potentially dangerous activity and may involve entering into certain parts of the Territory (via a specific route between Urtuus chosen by the Rider and not, for the avoidance of doubt, by the Company) which are considered highly dangerous and unsuitable for foreign travel due to reasons including the applicable physical terrain or political and/or social climate. Additionally, the Rider is fully aware and acknowledges that all horse sports and accordingly participation in the Event involve serious risk of harm, including, but not limited to, risks of accident, serious bodily injury, including death, broken bones, head injuries, trauma, pain, fatigue, dehydration and suffering and property damage. The Rider additionally acknowledges and accepts full responsibility for checking and maintaining all equipment in their possession for the duration of the Event to ensure its safe use (including by way of example, the saddle, bridle, girth, buckles and riding hat).

12.2 In recognition of these facts, and for the consideration set forth in this Agreement, the Rider elects voluntarily to enter into this Agreement and assume all risks of loss, damages, injury or death that may be sustained, and the Rider will participate in the Event in accordance with this Agreement entirely at their own risk.

12.3 Save in the event of any negligent or willful act or omission on the part of the person or entity concerned, none of the Company, any Official or the Event Director or any of their respective officers, agents or employees, shall be liable to any Rider for death or personal injury, damage to property or other loss or damage of any nature whatsoever suffered by the Rider whether arising from participation in the Event or otherwise.

12.5 Except where expressly provided in this Agreement, the Rider undertakes to the Company to be liable for any death or personal injury to third parties, damage to property or any other claims, losses, costs (including, without limitation, all reasonable legal costs) or demands arising out of any negligent or willful act or omission of the Rider during the Event Period, whether arising from participation in the Event or otherwise.

12.6 The Rider undertakes and agrees that they will irrevocably indemnify and hold the Company harmless from and against all costs and expenses (including reasonable legal costs), actions, proceedings, claims, demands and damage arising from a breach of the Rider's representations, warranties or undertakings contained herein or arising from the acts or omissions of the Rider, respective officers, employers, agents or sub-contractors.

12.7 Notwithstanding clause 6.1.12, the Rider shall take out death, accident and health insurance for themselves. A copy of such insurance policies shall be provided to the Event Director at any time upon request.

13. Power to make rules and other provisions

13.1 The parties recognise that given the nature of the Event, issues may arise in relation to the Event that were not foreseen and therefore are not specifically addressed in the Terms of Entry or the Event Rules or that would have an unintended result if made subject to the Terms of Entry and the Event Rules without modification. The parties further recognise that it is in the best interests of the Event, and of all the participants in the Event, that such issues be addressed as quickly and effectively as possible.

13.2 In consequence of the recognition set out in clause 13.1, the Rider agrees that the Company shall have the right, exercisable unilaterally from time to time before and/or during the Event Period:

13.3 During the Event itself, the Company may delegate the right conferred by clause 13.1 above to one or more designees including the Event Director, any Official or any other person appointed by the Company.

13.4 The Rider agrees that any amended and supplemental Terms of Entry or Event Rules and any directions made pursuant to this clause 13 shall become binding upon the Rider immediately upon communication to them and shall be deemed to be included in the Terms of Entry or the Event Rules (as applicable) for the purposes of this Agreement.

13.5 Decisions made pursuant to this clause to amend or supplement the Terms of Entry or Event Rules or to issue directions shall be final. Any such decisions or directions shall be posted on the Event website and communicated to the Rider via email. In the event that the Company make a decision/provide a direction under this clause whilst the Event is in progress, it shall use all reasonable endeavours to communicate this to the Rider as soon as practicable following the issue of the decision/direction. No challenge shall be made by the Rider any such decision.

14. Dispute resolution

14.1 All disputes, issues or complaints regarding the Rider's participation in the Event shall be referred to the Event Director for determination as soon as practicable thereafter. For the avoidance of doubt, all determination, decisions and directives of the Event Director shall be final.

14.2.1 suspension or expulsion from the remainder of the Event (including, for the avoidance of doubt, in the event that the Rider's riding ability does not, in the reasonable opinion of the Event Director, reflect that stated in their application), or imposition other Event-based sanctions or fines upon a Rider;

14.2.2 impose other Event-based sanctions or fines on a Rider and to make such cost order in relation to the relevant matter as it considers appropriate;

- There may be detrimental consequences for the Rider's experience of the event in Mongolia, health or even life that are not foreseeable.
- The Rider must be fully aware of the short-term and potentially long-term risks to his/her health/life of partaking in the Mongol Derby.
- The Rider must be aware that the wilderness itself presents dangers on top of those inherent to partaking in extreme sports such as horse racing, that may cause serious injury or death.
- The Rider must be aware that there are no medical facilities on the steppe, that the nearest hospital or medical facility may be hours from them should they suffer any injury and that there is a severe lack of availability of helicopters in Mongolia, meaning helicopter assistance in the case of an accident may not be available. He/she should also be aware that, should specialist care be required in the event of an accident during the Event, the medical facilities in Mongolia may not be sufficient, and a medevac to a medical centre elsewhere may be required.
- The Rider must attain the correct level of death, accident and health insurance, satisfactory evidence of which they must present to the Event Directors at least two weeks prior to the start of the pre-race training session.
- The rider must complete the Pre-Race Medical Questionnaire for the attention of our medical partner by 1st July 2022, without prejudice to clause 6.1.4.
- The Rider acknowledges the risk they undertake when entering the Mongol Derby 2022 and has read and understood clause 12 (12.1-12.7) of the Rider Agreement which deals with the acknowledgement of risk.
- The Rider accepts that safety is the paramount consideration for the Mongol Derby 2022, which is firstly an adventure and secondarily a race. The safety of the Rider, the Rider's horse and the other competitors must take priority over any competitive element to the Mongol Derby.
- In recognition of the safety elements of this event and as part of the compulsory safety precautions which Riders must adhere to, each Rider will be provided with by the Company and should carry with them at all times the satellite tracking device which has an in-built emergency activation beacon. This should only be used if the Rider or horse's health or life is at severe risk and therefore for medical or veterinary emergencies.

Refundable Deposit for transport from the racecourse Each rider will need to lodge a refundable deposit against the cost of optional transport services from the racecourse to Ulaanbaatar arranged by the Company on behalf of the Rider. The refundable amount of $450 is payable by debit or credit card using our online payment provider by 1st July 2022.

This refundable deposit will be used if you request transport to be organised on your behalf should you require it due to a non-emergency medical situation, injury or other need to travel from the racecourse to Ulaanbaatar before the scheduled bus service for riders at the end of the race period.

The Company will endeavour to facilitate the most appropriate and cost effective transport option available but the rider acknowledges that the Company will not be responsible or liable for the transport services delivered or accept any claim for loss, damage, injury or death related to the transport services provided by the third party and accepted by the Rider.

The Company agrees to make arrangements for this transport service to facilitate a cost effective solution in a remote environment where other options may be slow or vastly more expensive. There is no obligation to accept the transport options offered in this situation.

The direct cost of the transport service will be deducted from the deposit if used by the Rider. Foreign exchange rates on the day the transport is arranged will be used to convert the cost in the locally required currency to calculate any deduction from the refundable deposit paid in British sterling (GBP). If no transport services are required the full amount will be refunded to the card used to lodge the deposit and the refund processed in the week following the end of the race.

Instalment Schedule Instalment schedules are available for the payment of the entry fee and the schedule and amounts are dependant on the date of registration and payment of the first instalment.

Paying by instalments? This is important: The percentages showing what you can reclaim refer to the full Entry Fee amount, and not the amount you have paid up to that point in instalments.

For example, if you are due 75% of the full Entry Fee back, that means we will keep the other 25% of the full price entry fee, so may retain all the instalments you have paid. If you have paid less than 25% of the full Entry Fee in instalments at the point you withdraw, then you won't be due a refund.

COVID-19: Cancellation and Postponement Policy

- Cancellation In the case that we have to cancel the event you have signed up to because of an outbreak of COVID-19 in the event destination country we will offer you:

Credit to the sum of your entry fee (minus the admin fee amount of $300 USD)

OR

A full refund for the entry-fee amount you have paid (minus the admin fee amount of $300 USD).

- Postponement In the case that we postpone the event due to an outbreak of COVID-19 in the event destination country to such a time that we consider safe to reschedule it to, we will offer you a free transfer to the new dates of the rescheduled event (no admin fee would be applied). If the new event dates are unsuitable for you, we will offer you:

Credit to the sum of your entry fee (minus the admin fee amount of $300 USD)

OR

A full refund for the entry-fee amount you have paid (minus the admin fee amount of $300 USD).

-Retrospective refund request at point of event cancellation or postponement If you have pulled out of the event and are issued a refund based on our normal refund policy, and the event is later cancelled or postponed due to an outbreak of COVID-19, you will not be entitled to come back at the point of event cancellation or postponement for a full refund as you will already have ended your contract with us.

- Disinclination to travel We won't refund your entry fee if you have a disinclination to travel due to a perceived threat of COVID-19 and the event is going ahead.

- If you are infected with COVID-19 If you need to withdraw from the event because you have contracted COVID-19, a refund will be given at the sole discretion of the company and on presentation of a medical certificate proving infection.

-Immunity Certificates or other types of COVID-19 control documents You may be required to obtain an immunity certificate or some other kind of documentation to prove that you are not actively infected with COVID-19. If you are unable to travel because you do not have the correct documents relating to COVID-19, we will be unable to refund you.

- Quarantine, health and security regulations You may be expected to quarantine for a period of time on arrival in the event destination country. You may also be expected to do the same in your country of residence when returning from your trip. You may need to take this into consideration when planning your schedule to take part in the event. We will not issue a full refund to you if you sign up with the understanding that this, amongst other travel regulations, is a possibility, and then later decide you do not wish to comply with these regulations and so want to withdraw. These regulations are likely to become a part of post-COVID-19 travel for a little while, so please take them into consideration.
- Regional lockdowns If your country of residency's government prevents all travel or your residency/nationality is banned from entry into the event destination country, you can take a credit to the sum of your entry fee. You will not be entitled to a refund of your entry fee as we may not have cancelled or postponed the event in this case. (Not all nationalities and residencies will be under the same travel restrictions at the same time).
- Regional entry restrictions If the country in which the event is taking place introduces regional lockdown zones, we will move the location of the event if we can. If we can't do this because the lockdown zones are so restrictive we are unable to deliver a satisfactory event for you, we may cancel or postpone the event and the above rules will apply.
- Entry Fee Credit Credit lasts 24 months from the date it is issued. You have to use the credit within that time period - that means you have 2 years to book onto your next adventure using your credit.
- Adventure Transfer You can only use the transfer once unless an outbreak of COVID-19 also affects the next adventure you have transferred to.
- Terms and conditions If you agree to an adventure transfer or to postponed dates, you are no longer entitled to a refund of your entry fee.
- Things might change The pandemic is still in its early stages. We don't have a crystal ball we can peer in to to tell you what might happen next. However, what we do know is that things are changing fast, and we will update our policies as they change where relevant.

Official Charity Fundraising

The Rider acknowledges that the Company expects each rider to endeavour to raise a minimum of £1000 for charity with at least £500 being donated to the official Mongol Derby Charity, which will be announced for 2022 in due course.

Emergencies The Rider should only use the emergency beacon in the case of a medical or veterinary emergency. Instructions on how to use the emergency beacon will be available to the Rider in the Event Handbook and during the pre-race training session.

There will be a medical emergency support provided by Intrepid Medics Ltd during the Mongol Derby 2022, consisting of qualified expedition medics. The medical team will respond as fast as possible given the terrain and nature of the Mongol Derby 2022. However, the Rider must be aware, that in certain circumstances, where, for example, access across terrain is difficult, or weather is inclement, it can take many hours for the Emergency Medics to reach the injured Rider.
